"Push the Button and Rest"

PERSONAL

HAROLD, come back to me. Everything will be forgiven. You can have your Royal Push Button Chair and your pipe.—EDITH.

This tragedy of a wedded life is told in this little advertisement.

It means that Harold and Edith each wanted the same chair and she objected to his smoking. He left her—she wouldn't give up the Royal Chair until it was a question of giving that up or Harold—Harold won.

What is there about this

ROYAL CHAIR?

"The Push Button Kind."

It is so comfortable—more so than any other chair. By simply pushing a button the back goes to any of nine delightful positions.

DRUGS AND KODAKS

It Was a Base Lie.

The governorship canvass seems unduly heated, considering the wintry season and the chill remoteness of the next state election.

Just now there is a little skirmish in progress over the question whether or not Dr. Mead got left at Essex Junction—a misfortune which, were the story true, he would merely share with many a Vermont politician.

But the Springfield Reporter denies the allegation and defies the allegation. It declares in italics, "The truth is he did not get left at Essex Junction?" So, there, now. Another campaign lie nailed. Next!—Burlington News.

The Only One.

"Was ever a man an originator and a plagiarist at the same time?" "Yes, the first plagiarist was."—Puck.

SAFE ICE CREAM WITHOUT CHURNING

Think of simply placing the ingredients in a freezer and later finding the contents frozen into the most delicious cream or ice, absolutely smooth and velvety. All without labor. All without the usual danger of poisonous ingredients. It seems like magic. This wonderful freezer does it.

The D. A. Perry Real Estate agency has sold for Thomas Spooner his farm, stock and tools in Northfield to Samuel Currier and wife of Grantville. Mr. Spooner takes in part payment a house owned by Mr. Currier in Websterville. The deal involves $4,000.

C. S. Wallace was elected yesterday as a delegate to represent the Congregational church at the installation of the Rev. Francis A. Poole at the Congregational church in Worcester, Mass., to which he was recently called. The installation will be held on Nov. 18.

"A bunch of good pictures." That is what the manager of the last big theatre said about to-day's program at Dreamland. The entertainment includes such films as "Circumstantial Evidence," a great court drama, and two other new ones. The song will please, for it's "Paddy Cat." Welsh sings it. Children will especially like it.

A military drama of stirring interest and one sure to satisfy the people will like plenty doing in a picture. Another in to-day's program at the Bijou is a fine dumb animal picture, entitled, "A Friend in Need." Shows how much some horses know. The comedy is furnished in "Getting Vaccinated." Many should hear Carmin sing to-day.

Dancing class. W. L. Nichols will start his dancing class and social in Miles hall Wednesday evening, Nov. 10. Teaching, 8 to 10, followed by dancing until 12. Tickets, gents $3.50, ladies $2.50. If there is not enough present the first evening to ensure a successful class, the series will not be given. Those wishing private lessons can make arrangements for them at the hall after 7 p. m.

Judging from the press notices regarding George E. Austin & Co., the management of the Pavilion has a top notch vaudeville attraction in this act, which is highly endorsed by such papers as the Cincinnati Enquirer, the New Orleans Picayune, the Indianapolis Sentinel, and numerous other of the great newspapers of the West and Southwest. The great Delafie, who is a personal friend of and is guaranteed by Bosch Bros., will also contribute his assistance to amuse the patrons of the Pavilion.

That an effort is being made to make moving pictures the highest standard of amusement is becoming more apparent every day. The manufacturers are spending large sums of money to send their actors to various parts of the world to produce pictures in their proper surroundings. One of the pictures that is being exhibited at the Comique today was taken in Italy and is acted by a cast of great Italian actors. The Vitagraph company, in order to get this picture, sent a photographer and a stage director to Italy. The results secured justified the expense. Every detail of the picture, which, by the way, is entitled "Entombed Alive," shows a great advancement in many ways.

The morning paper was read by the Rev. D. H. Strong of Williamstown on the subject "What has psychology contributed to the conception of man and to belief in God." At noon the pastors took dinner in a body at the City hotel, and this afternoon's session included a paper by the Rev. Dr. E. O. Thayer on "Tolstoy's Religion," and remarks were made by the Rev. J. D. McKeen and the Rev. G. McArthur of Grantville.

The Sawdust Evil.

The hunter's license will bring to the state treasury a revenue of between $10,000 and $15,000. This money goes to the credit of the fish and game department. No special provision has been made for the use of this money, but there are surely plenty of ways to expend it with good advantage to the state. A few hundred dollars might profitably be expended in an educational campaign that would arouse the people to the point of demanding that sawdust and other material injurious to fish protection should be kept out of our brooks and streams.—Lyndonville Union Journal.

The Banner is of the opinion that the sawdust evil is pretty well understood and pretty generally condemned. The trouble is that the sawmill interests plead that it would cripple their business to be compelled to stop putting sawdust in streams. Possibly the matter might be amicably arranged by using a part of the license money each year for a term of years to help the mill owners provide other means of disposing of their sawdust, the same as the state now helps in doing away with grade crossings, and then as fast as a stream was freed from the evil forbid its being again abused in the same way.—Bennington Banner.

BED BLANKETS

Every kind of a material that has a cotton composition is to be higher and that's right. Am sorry to say that raw cotton has gone from 8 to 15 cents per pound and no signs of stopping there. Any material so heavy of cotton as Blankets are to be most seriously affected in price. Prices that are quoted today are only for a few days.

Blankets

Cotton Blankets in good size at 45c; larger ones at 50c per pair. Then we have a heavier, heavier Blanket to sell for 95c and just a little larger one for $1.19.

We have an extra large White Blanket that we are selling at $1.49. Cannot get any more grey this grade.

We picked up in Boston yesterday a heavy grey twilled Blanket that we are selling at $1.49 while they last.

We have a large double fleeced Cotton-filled Comforter or Bed Quilt that we are selling at $1.25 each. Will be $1.50 later.

We have in Wool Blankets some very fine grades. Those that came from the West are fully 20 per cent better than New England Blankets. Ask to see an imitation home-made Blanket at $4.50.

Our Ladies' Rubbers are not made by a trust. We think that they are better. They fit a Regal Shoe perfectly.

Ladies' Night Robes

Last season you might have had a night robe with name "Patriot Brand" stitched in at the neck. The price was $1.00. If you did have one we know that it was the best value that your dollar ever went to pay for.

We have Ladies' Night Robes full length down to the floor with extra gussets at the side. These are of good outing, not the best, and the price is but 50c each.

The Outing Night Robe called the "Patriot Brand" comes in both white and colored outing and sells again for $1.00 each. Please notice the work as well as quality of outing.

We have a special price of 25c on a Ladies' Knit Skirt.

Children's small sized Outing Night Robes and Children's Outing Skirts on our bargain table at 25c each.

Time to Buy

We have not advanced any of our Wash Goods, but want to say in time to give you all a chance that our 5c Outings and 10c Gingham and Percales will be two cents more when they are replaced.

We are to-day paying an advance on all kinds of cotton goods coming into our store. Some manufacturers will not make an advance price and then stick to it.

If we had waited until to-day to place our orders for next spring we would have to pay an advance on thin white goods from 10 to 20 per cent, according to finish of goods.

Remember, if you are able to buy next spring any kind of wash goods at old prices it will be that your merchant has been prompt enough in the market to protect you on price.

See our sale on Bed, Sprays and Sheets. It will save you dollars.
